The compensation for slow progress or non-completion of work in stipulated time, at the rates specified therein, is an "agreed compensation" which the contractor has to pay in case of default. Therefore, there is no choice for the Engineer - in - Charge but to recover the same at the rates mentioned above, if the progress of the work is slow or the work is not completed in stipulated time.

The contract executing officer should identify delay in the execution of the work at the appropriate stage and issue notice (Registered/ Speed Post) to the contractor of the contract indicating non – fulfilment of the work on proportionate time lapse basis.

The contract executing officer should also give a notice ( Registered /Speed Post) to the contractor, so as to reach him before expiry of the contract period, of his intention to recover the amount of compensation. The notice should clearly mention the date on which the stipulated time is going to expire and that the contractor should complete the work on time otherwise he shall make himself liable to recovery of compensation mentioned above. The above communication should be conveyed to the contractor through Site Order Book also.

In case of tenders accepted by Head of Unit _____, the power of granting extension of time rests with the head of Unit. Therefore the contract executing officer should, from time to time, apprise him of the facts about slow progress of the work of its likely non completion on time and also endorse to him the copies of the letters notices sent to contractor. The recovery of compensation should be effected after decision on extension of time has been obtained.

Through there may be delays and lapses on the part of the department at the same time there are also delayed lapses on the part of the contractor. For such delays during the stipulated or extended period of completion, the contractor is responsible but these are also to be taken into account by the Officer while recommending or granting extension. To safeguard BHEL's interest these lapses on the part of the contractor should invariably be clearly mentioned by the contract executing officer while granting recommending extension of time. In granting extension of time a balanced view should be taken of the delays on the part of the contractor, vis – a-vis the delays of the department. The mention of the delays on the part of the contractor along with that of the Department would ultimately help the Department in properly defending its position against the claims of the contractor for damages.

In case of delay in execution of work or any other Breach of Contract, committed by the contractor, BHEL reserves its right to adjust all the losses/ damages cause to it from the contractor by recovering the same through any of the pending bills of the contractor, forfeiture of Security Deposit and by filling any suit for recovery of money before appropriate court of law.
